I. About National Law University

National Law University, Jodhpur over the years has emerged as one of the premier law schools in the country continuously striving to achieve a mellifluous balance between academic and extra-curricular pursuits among its students. Over the years it has organized a variety of events including international conferences with leading law firms like Allen & Overy and Herbert Smith Freehills, Moot Court competitions (Anti-Trust Law Moot Court Competition which has successfully completed its fifth edition in March this year) as well as our bi-annual sports fest Ywardha (which has completed three editions and has gone on to become one of the largest law school sports fests in India) to name just a few.

We have learnt great deal through our experience in organizing these events over the years and promise to use the expertise in making NH-65-2014 a memorable experience for everyone.

II. About Jodhpur, Rajasthan

Jodhpur is also known as "the Sun City" and was founded by Rao Jodha, a chief of the Rathore clan, in 1459. Jodhpur is the second largest city in Rajasthan. It is divided into two parts - the old city and the modern day city of Jodhpur.

a. Old City

The old city is separated by a 10 km long wall surrounding it. Also it has eight gates leading out of it. The Old City houses some of the most famous attractions of Jodhpur including places like the Mehrangarh Fort, Jaswant Thada, Rao Jodha National Park etc. The Old City is further dotted with quaint little roof top cafes that provide a panoramic view of the entire "Blue City" which munching away on the sumptuous banquet on offer. It is one of the most famous tourist hubs of Asia and has hosted several high profile celebrities like Christopher Nolan, Christian Bale, Shahrukh Khan, Amitabh Bachchan, Parineeti Chopra on personal and professional visits.

b. Jodhpur City

The modern city of Jodhpur extends beyond the walls of the Old City and is filled with a multitude of shops selling traditional ware from Rajasthan juxtaposed with swanky new malls with all the national retail outlets that have flocked the city recently making it a perfect blend of culture and modernity. Jodhpur is also famous for its discipline and safety reporting the lowest rates of crime nationally consistently. The main city boasts famous tourist spots like Umaid Bhawan Palace, Kaliana lake, Mandore Gardens etc. All in all it can be said that it is the perfect place for an enriching weekend retreat.

c. In and Around Jodhpur

There are a plethora of tourist destinations and get-away options in the close vicinity of Jodhpur. Be it the mesmerizing sand dunes of Osian, the peaceful sojourn of the Pushkar Lake or famous destinations in Rajasthan like Ajmer, Udaipur, Jaipur etc. all of the places are extensively connected and is an overnight journey away.
